Really do believe that she was quite serious. You can start to sense this kind of desperate – sometimes, you can cut it with a knife after you have been out here on the Hobo Tour for any extended period of time. I gave her the benefit of the doubt that she really did know what it was like

I learned a long ago back in the days from the Jesuit Brothers who through prayer, heartache and community service obligations (on my part) tried their utmost best to save my already deviant soul; they tried and tried to get me to understand

Peace is a state of mind and even though it locked into our present this doesn't mean that it is not an echo from a different harmonic

eyes call us a stone, cold

Really good question,

Please let me know if you actually figure it out as I have been led to believe that such deep thoughts are way above my actual pay grade or is that my social credit score???

I think that the Jesuit
